PROJECT EXPERIENCE

Writers Hub — Version Controlled Blog Site

- A blog-like website that allows writers to post version controlled content
- Currently in design and development
- Will allow writers to post multiple drafts of a story. This is useful for allowing editors and early readers to view whichever version the writer wants feedback on

WORK EXPERIENCE

Order Processor, Hallmark, Liberty MO, Mar 2019 – Present

- Trained in several roles including: Order Processor, Stock Handler, and Control Panel Operator
- As Control Panel Operator, was responsible for communication between Order Processors and Stock Handlers in ensuring that necessary product was available and quickly correcting any out-of-stock issues

Warehouse Specialist, Rent-a-Center-National Product Services, Kansas City Mo, Feb 2016 – Jan 2019

- Responsible for receiving thousands of units of electronics per week
- Managed inventory - including audits and inventory corrections
- Responsible for numerous spreadsheet reports on a weekly basis
- As back-up lead, I would often direct production and assign tasks to coworkers, ensuring that shipping always ran on schedule
